

European Science Editing

Vol 35(1)
February 2009

ISSN 0258-3127

European
Association of Science
Editors

EASE

www.ease.org.uk

Editorials

- 2 Arjan Polderman: A taxonomy of editors

Articles

- 3 Philip J Peacock, Tim J Peters, Janet L Peacock: How well do structured abstracts reflect the articles they summarize?
6 Stevan Harnad: Self-archiving, metrics, and mandates

Viewpoints

- 9 John G Taylor: English – whose responsibility?
10 Marcin Kozak: The author thanks the anonymous referees for their valuable comments

Editing around the world

- 11 Teo Matković: Transition to on-line journal management – how we switched to Open Journal System and stopped worrying

Reports of meetings

- 13 Anglo-German Medical Society (Birte Twisselmann)
14 EMAME regional conference (Farrokh Habibzadeh)
15 Communication support across the disciplines: METM08 (Marije de Jager)
16 Ensuring research integrity in biomedical publishing: ALPSP/COPE seminar (Gary Bryan)
18 Implementing research integrity guidelines: ESF (Emma Campbell)

Regular features

- 20 EASE-Forum Digest, October to December 2008 (Elise Langdon-Neuner, compiler)
21 My Life as an Editor: John Glen
22 The Editors' WebWatch (Colin Batchelor, compiler)
23 News Notes (Richard Hurley, compiler)
26 The Editor's Bookshelf (Penny Hubbard and Paola De Castro, compilers)
30 Forthcoming meetings, courses, and BELS examinations

EASE business

- 31 Conference Update
31 EASE Members' News
32 EASE Register of Training Courses in Science Writing and Editing
32 Website Visitor Report

Occasional features

- 8 When I Use a Word: The very last word (Jeff Aronson)
22 Technical Tips: Synchronizing files on different computers (Karl Sharrock)